

Train with world-renowned dermatologists at the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine

Graduate Education Specialty Training (GEST)

The Graduate Education Specialty Training (G.E.S.T.) Observership Program is tailored for international dermatologists, with preference to those who recently completed their training.

The Department of Dermatology offers specialty training in:

- General dermatology
- Pediatric dermatology
- Dermatologic surgery including Mohs
- Cosmetic dermatology
- Hair and nails disorders
- Hair pathology

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

- Curriculum Vitae
- Certified copy of medical school transcripts
- Certified copy of medical school diploma
- Applicants must be proficient in both verbal and written English
- Copy of passport and visa
- Two letters of recommendation
- Proof of immunization
- Proof of personal health insurance
- Complete HIPAA certification
- All documentation must be translated into the English language and certified

To be considered for the GEST program, please send CV and two letters of recommendation to mpalomino@med.miami.edu